NORTH LIMA, OH GETS A NEW LOOK

Pilot Travel Centers selected Adolph Johnson & Son Co. as their General Contractor for the demolition of their existing facility and the construction of the new Pilot Travel Center in North Lima, Ohio.

With the necessary shut down of operations, time was of the essence. New fuel tanks, a complete new store with showers, laundry McDonalds restaurant and retail area, five acres of paving a new turning lane and landscaping all came together to transform the site. Thru the efforts and cooperation of Pilot, Adolph Johnson & Son Co, our subs and suppliers in five short Months the attractive Pilot Travel Center was back serving truckers and travelers.

DW Dickey & Son, Inc. can now show you their selection of masonry products in their new showroom and warehouse in East Liverpool, Ohio. The building also is home to Hays Oil Company.

The 3,600 square foot warehouse is a Varco-Pruden pre-engineered building. The 2,800 square foot showroom was constructed of split face block and conventional roof framing. Adolph Johnson & Son worked with the project architect Strollo Architects to bring the project with budget while meeting DW Dickey's space and function requirements.

DW Dickey will be servicing customers and supplying the surrounding area with brick and block from their new facility for many years to come.

President's Ponderings...

Wow '07-Hello '08

Change-It's going to happen; the questions are what and how fast? 2007 was a great year-one marked with change.

Personal Changes-I was blessed with a wonderful wife, Michele and a second son, Lucas Paul. That's as good as it gets!

At Adolph Johnson & Son Co. we saw Becky, who ran the office so well for many years, leave for the great northwest and welcomed Brenda Thompson and Jennifer Downing to keep the inside operations humming. We are also pleased to have Paul Sweeney join us. Educated in Architecture, Paul has found the builder's experience is his passion.

In the field, we have seen our veterans continue to improve and we have had newer members of the team step up and assume leadership roles. It is all part of the on-going change we strive for in order to better meet the needs of our continuing and new clients.

All of us at Adolph Johnson & Son Co. are grateful for the opportunity to do our best. Helping those we serve meet their objectives. This is our primary purpose!
